Why Choose UNYP's MPS Program?

The Master's in Psychology (MPS) at the University of New York in Prague (UNYP) prepares you for a professional career in psychology in alignment with the EuroPsy European qualification standard. This program provides advanced theoretical knowledge, hands-on experience, and scientific expertise, equipping you for a broad range of psychology careers.

- Accredited by the Czech Ministry of Education
- Comprehensive core & elective courses tailored to industry demands
- Internship opportunities with 450+ hours of supervised practical training
- Thesis preparation with expert faculty guidance
- Pathway to further specialization & doctoral studies

CORE CURRICULUM: BUILD A STRONG FOUNDATION

The MPS program delivers an advanced academic foundation in psychological theory, research, and applied practice, ensuring you acquire the necessary competencies for a successful career.

ELECTIVE OPTIONS

- Psychotherapy & Counseling Techniques – Learn therapeutic approaches and intervention methods
- Neuropsychology & Cognitive Science – Understand brain-behavior relationships
- Forensic & Criminal Psychology – Apply psychology in legal and investigative settings
- Communication within the Therapeutic Setting

YOUR CAREER STARTS HERE

Graduates of the MPS program at UNYP are fully prepared for professional psychology practice, with career opportunities in:

- Clinical & Counseling Psychology*
- Educational & School Psychology*
- Human Resources & Organizational Psychology*
- Research & Academia*
- Health & Rehabilitation Centers*

*Subject to holding relevant undergraduate degree and further training requirements

---

YEAR 1:
ESTABLISHING YOUR EXPERTISE

General & Social Psychology
– Explore contemporary theories and psychological paradigms

Labor & Organizational Psychology
– Learn psychological applications in workplaces

School & Educational Psychology
– Understand child and adolescent development in educational settings

Research Methodology & Advanced Data Analysis
– Master scientific research and analytical skills

Ethics in Psychology
– Develop a strong ethical foundation for psychological practice

---

YEAR 2:
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Clinical & Health Psychology
– Prepare for roles in mental health and counseling

Psychological Assessment
– Learn diagnostic tools and assessment methodologies

Performing Psychological Professions (CZ, EU & Beyond)
– Understand the career landscape in psychology

Child Clinical Psychology & Psychological Assessment
– Develop specialized knowledge for child mental health

Psychological Assessment of Adults
– Develop specialized knowledge for evaluating adult mental health